Place: Ft. Caroline Community Center, 4131 Ferber Rd.
Jacksonville FL 32277

Workshop fee: $160 for guild members: $190 for non-guild members
Deposit - $50.00 –non-refundable - at time of registration

Description of workshop:

The Fiber Artist Sketchbook is a fun and informative program for Fiber Art Guilds. Together we learn key concepts in Art Theory while playing with bits of fiber and sentimental textiles.

Presentation maker stations may include non-traditional weaving, fabric design, cyanotype prints of fiber art items, embroidery/slow stitching, applique, felting, book binding, collage with fabric and photographing handmades with natural and artificial light. Here is a link to pictures representing some of the stations.

About Sara Norine James:

Sara Norine James is a fiber artist and photographer from the Tampa Bay area. As a life long learner, maker, and teacher, Sara uses her knowledge of traditional craft to create innovative art while maintaining functional design.

As a workshop leader, Sara's instructional guidance is both liberating and comprehensively informative. She enjoys leading workshops, packed full of useful tips and practical information, that enable participants to improve their skills, solve problems, and express themselves more effectively. All classes serve beginners along side students with intermediate level experience. Her ability to adapt and address the need of each student generates an engaging environment among many creatives. Sara's encouraging nature along with her positive emphasis of common sense and play is appreciated by students who have chosen to join her.
